4. The candidate may not be pregnant or have children
5. Upon accepting a title if shoes, she agrees that she will not become pregnant during her reign
6. Judging is based on all of the following but not necessarily in the following order:
  - a. Acceptance of duties and responsibilities: The candidate will be asked to verify the willingness to attend 2/3rds of the events in the year, raise money during fundraisers to help promote and support the program. The events listed are a sample of what the Sibley County Royalty has attended in the past. It is not limited to or guaranteed these events we will attend.
  - b. Appearance: the candidate's outward appearance has no bearing on the selection process. It IS expected however that the candidate's actions throughout the weekend would be professional and characteristic of how she would represent Sibley County.
  - c. Community Skills: County Spirit and pride are definite considerations in the judging process.
  - d. Personality: the personality of the candidate should reflect sound qualities of mind and character. The candidate's actions, personality, character and overall personality will be assessed in the consideration of the new Sibley County Royalty Court. Professionalism, kindness, and wholesomeness are characteristics among the judging criteria. She should project friendliness with proper restraint. She must be able to handle herself with confidence and decorum in any situation.

- e. Poise: pose is determined by the manner in which the candidate conducts herself with others her age and the general public. She should be pleasant and friendly.
  - f. Authenticity: The authenticity of when the candidate is true to her own personality, spirit, or character.. The candidate should be genuine and sincere in her attitude and how she carries herself.
6. The Sibley County Royalty Court is not required to postpone educational pursuit during their year-long reign.
  7. The judges' decisions are final. The judges' scores are not available for distribution.
  8. If a candidate does not receive the Miss Sibley County title, she may participate in the Sibley County Royalty Scholarship again.
  9. The candidate should be in good health
